Dear Mr Tidd,

Thank you firstly for taken the time to E Mail me.As you can guess i am far from trusting Salvation Army in any way,after the way my case was handled.As for you,we have a clean slate.Words are cheap,so i will judge as we go along how we are going.I appreciate this is not you doing, and your job ir to fix it.As for your apology i wait before i respond to it.I am sure you ment it ,but for now nothing.I was going to ask you to read 44,i think it good you took time.I think and would like if your Officers and rest were asked to read it.I think that way there would understand backlash from public and why donations are down.iGreat PR. Because you need it.As for meeting ,i do appreciate you offering me the time.As i said lets see how it goes.Sorry about spelling, getting better.If we dont speak again,i wish you and the ones you love,a Merry Christmas.As for you Mr Tidd lets make next year the one we work towards fixing this for VICTIMS and to start to restore your Salvation Army.

Take Care Graham Rundle 44
