Dear Geoff,

Mr EAE should not be allowed to merge the two matters of bullying and non-payment of fees.

He is a bad debtor. Failure to pay his debts should result in the usual sanctions being put in place, including the boy being sent home and him being put into the hands of a collection agent.

In relation to CLC being bullied - it is true.

However, the School did not do the bullying, some objectionable students did.

The School takes allegations of bullying very seriously and we certainly did so in CLC's case.

We have expelled one boy and suspended two others. This is not the action of a school that is doing nothing about CLC being bullied.

Furthermore, CLC does not make things easy by behaving in a way that is socially inappropriate and even engaging in bullying himself.

Having noted the above, I am happy to be guided by you and Kevin on this matter.

With kind regards,

Tim

Andrew

As you may be aware I have been in conversation with EAE all year and the School has been very lenient with regards to the outstanding fees issue (about $25k is owing) allowing CLC to remain here, I have just got off the phone to him and he tells me he wont discuss fees any more because CLC has been bullied, harrassed and sexually assaulted.

He is "livid" in his words with accusations about the school letting CLC down and not fulfilling its duty of care. And of course he now mixes the fee issue with whatever the other issue is. He awaits a call from you.

Can we catch up when you are free.

Thanks

Geoff
