

Re: Follow Up re <sup>CLC</sup>

From: Greg James <counsellor@kings.edu.au>
To: Andrew Mansfield <asm@kings.edu.au>
Date: Fri, 16 Aug 2013 08:50:08 +1000

Thanks Andrew..there is considerable leg work with all this.
 >>> Andrew Mansfield 8/15/2013 8:44 PM >>>
 Greg and Andrew,

For your records, this evening I spoke with a number of boys in the House:

REDACTED

REDACTED (CLC s Room-mate)

-I asked these boys to keep an eye out for CLC on his return and to be mindful that him coming back could be difficult and they should be a helping hand for CLC

-REDACTED was aware that CLC didn't have a strong circle of friends in the House and was happy to keep an eye out for CLC

-REDACTED had been in to see CLC just after the incident on Tues Night. He also fronted two of the Year 12s (REDACTED and one other) and let them know that pressuring REDACTED in Housemeeting was not the right thing to do

REDACTED

REDACTED

REDACTED

REDACTED

-I asked these boys if they had been commenting using comments like 'cum rag' about CLC . All denied it bar REDACTED who admitted they said it so that CLC could hear it.

-I indicated they needed to be aiming to repair their relationship with CLC , be sensitive to him on his return and make sure the behaviour didn't continue. I mentioned they needed to make sure they weren't making comments and also stopping others

REDACTED

REDACTED

-These two boys are our House Captains. Neither of them were aware of the situation prior to Tuesday Night. I've asked them to keep an eye out for CLC on his return and stamp out any comments being made by other boys.

Regards,
 Andrew