Hi sir,

School started off well at the start of the week and for the most part it still is, but the boys in the house are still trying to get a reaction by doing different things. REDACTED has been saying things to REDACTED basically insulting him for being my room mate. They have stopped saying things referring to corps camp and what happend, but they are still saying things like yelling my name in the corridor, using my name to insult people and trying to be sneaky when doing it. They claim they arent doing anything because they are just saying my name.

Thanks,
CLC
