Dear Andrew and Greg,

I have just spoken with EAG (mother of CLC ).

She was appreciative of the call. She indicated CLC was more calm by the time they got home last night and had a pretty undisturbed night. She and EAE had suggested to CLC that he stays off Facebook etc and I also let her know this was advice we planned to pass on as well.

She will bring CLC to school at 11AM for the meeting and had planned to have the day off the spend it with CLC . I indicated she would be more than welcome to sit in on the meeting. She appreciated that offer but indicated she would speak with CLC as she felt he may be embarrassed to talk about it in front of her. I emphasised the meeting was about us getting more information to be able to help CLC . I offered the services of Greg/Cath to also help CLC in the long term. She thought this was a good idea and was aware he may need strategies to deal with the issue if or when it was raised again.

Our conversation was a positive one and she was happy with the planned meeting tomorrow. I'll meet her and CLC at Reception at 11AM and bring them to Andrew's Office.

As we also discussed, I will speak with REDACTED REDACTED REDACTED and REDACTED and let them know they needed to have a positive relationship with CLC and certainly be doing what they can to stamp out any discussions about the topic. I've let them know the less they talk about it the better and will remind them to do the same.

Thanks for your help today.

Andrew
