John,

People got me so wrong. I just didn't fit into the accepted black boxes that people like to put me into.

My confidence has been so low, I've been speaking to people working through things. I heard Bill, and had every intention of seeing Susan Temple. — I carry the card in my pocket + was dilly in confidence to see her.

I've always enjoyed tubing + have/give a lot of support to the Day Houses / Clyde + FB.

I could not accept your letter, the hurt has been too much — I can't cope any longer. Where has the school support, other than yours been? Are we just a cog in a larger machine?

I am so depressed, it all seems so unreal.

John
