Late 1990

Sunday

Dear Andrew,

I am advised that the cause of events was as follows:

- BKY raised with DAE on 26 November the problem the family had in terminating the association
- Mrs REDACTED discussed the matter with DAE on 28 November
- BKY discussed the matter with AAT on 29 November.

What was said on the 28th was substantially the same as what was said on the 29th.

BKY knew that his mother was not here on the occasion. He himself found it more demanding in 1990 than previously. Eventually both BKY & his mother decided that the relationship should end, & Mrs REDACTED wrote a letter to that effect to you.

This is (to my knowledge) the third relationship which you have had with a pupil which has in the end caused expressed concern to the family of the pupil & to the pupil himself.

whether you would expect such a thing or consider it warranted I'm not sure, but the consequences of these relationships has been as follows:

- a) They are interpreted by some as being homosexual & talked about in that vein
- b) They make it harder for you to deal satisfactorily & constructively with pupils in general
- c) They expose the school & myself to the criticism that the school employs a member of staff whose behaviour is interpreted (at least by some) as being homosexual
- d) They set up barriers of misunderstanding between yourself & your colleagues.

I believe that over this particular matter you must give Mr & Mrs REDACTED or preferably not you will not visit the family or attempt to see BKY against their wishes. I must also make it plain that the consequences described in the preceding paragraph are already actually at work. That puts both me & you in a difficult situation which we must attempt to resolve. It ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~the~~ ~~case~~ (or seems to me that one of these two alternatives must be taken:

- a) we must agree that there is a problem for the school ^{& parents} & that there is a personal problem (yours) over which you need help & counselling
- b) you must offer your resignation.

Yours sincerely,
