Mildura police had commissions: MP

Allegations that Mildura police had been receiving secret commissions were made in State Parliament last night.

The allegations were made by Mr. Shilton (Lab., Midlands). Mr. Shilton is a former policeman.

Mr. Shilton said he believed an inquiry had been conducted but nothing had been done. He said one of the people concerned in the allegations had been allowed to leave the country.

Mr. Shilton urged the Chief Secretary (Mr. Hamer) to appoint an independent inquiry into the allegations.

Mr. Hamer said an inquiry had been conducted by Chief Supt. J. O' Connor, but no decision had been made. He said he would confer with Supt. O' Connor about the allegations.
