

Lanie Goldberger

From: Janet Feldman
Sent: Tuesday, 9 April 2013 2:13 PM
To: To All Staff
Subject: Yeshivah Beth Rivkah Colleges Safety Evening

Hi everyone,
 Yeshivah and Beth Rivkah Colleges together with GELC are hosting an informative and interesting evening about Protective Safety on April 17th - the flyer for the evening is below. We encourage all staff and parents to attend to hear Pauline Ryan our keynote speaker for the evening and to participate in the workshops detailed below.

Looking forward to seeing you on April 17th at 7:45pm in the Goldhirsch Hall.

*Thanks,
 Janet Feldman*

KEEP YOUR Children safe
EMPOWER YOUR CHILDREN WITH PROTECTIVE SAFETY SKILLS
 Essential for all parents of Kinder and School Aged children

🕒 WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17TH
 🕒 7:45 PM - 9:15 PM
 📍 GOLDHIRSCH FAMILY HALL
 YESHIVAH COLLEGE
 1 A'BECKETT ST. EAST ST. KILDA

Keynote Address Pauline Ryan
 Pauline Ryan is a Family therapist from the Gatehouse Centre at the Royal Children's Hospital who has worked extensively with children, adolescents and adults who have experienced trauma and abuse.

[7:45 - 7:55 pm] Introduction: Rabbi Smukler
 [7:55 - 8:40 pm] Keynote Address: Pauline Ryan
 [8:40 - 9:10 pm] Parents rotate among 3 activities as described below

- 🕒 Shelmy New and Pauline Ryan: Resources available in the community
- 🕒 Rabbi Smukler: Process a school is mandated to take when there are safety concerns about a child
- 🕒 Staff telling parents about the workshop that is delivered to students at Yeshivah Beth Rivkah Colleges

[9:10 - 9:20 pm] Question time
 [9:20 - 9:30 pm] Refreshments and Close

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT
 MRS JANET FELDMAN
 ON 95228222

*Assistant Head of Primary, Student Wellbeing
 Yeshivah College
 Primary*