1. At the time of complaint no night patrol was carried out at the Kew Cottage (SABH). Captain Penniment (Female) was the only officer in the unit.

Since then her husband Capt. Smith has exercised the necessary supervision and no more occurrences of this nature have occurred.

2. In the old building, however, occasionally, lads still abscond at night. This has now fallen to an absolute minimum, the main offenders having either

- a) Been placed elsewhere
- b) Seen the light.

3. At SAGH the girls were shrewd to wait until the night staff had passed on patrol before inviting the boys. Since the events have been brought to notice, there have been no re occurrences.
