20 JULY 2011

It was on a Shabbos or Yom Tov, I was going for a walk with EK, we went to his place to get a drink (water). I was sitting on his bed - I stretched back, he lay on me and touched my private parts from outside my pants. I said I have to go and after 10-15 minutes he let me go, and we walked down Alexandra St. I went to Yeshiva - he said "If I did anything to you, I didn't mean it because I was drunk". He was kind of asking for forgiveness. I told my friend [REDACTED]

About a month ago he asked me to go to his place, I said no - I have to go to Messibos Shabbos. He invited [REDACTED] and I told [REDACTED] - we have to go to M.S. I then told [REDACTED] what happened to me - he didn't believe me. After that he touched me a couple of times in my private parts on top of my pants, in Shule when I was davening late.

A few weeks ago my father told me that EK was trying to cut his veins - he was drunk - and my father took the knife away.

I told my father what happened to me the day we came back from Winter Camp.
