
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, 20 February 2015 3:16 PM
To: redress
Subject: abuse

to whom it may concern I am writing on behalf of my husband who is a victim of abuse, mostly physical from house parents at [REDACTED] this has not gone away but is getting worse as each year passes my husband cannot talk about this without turning into a mess that I am left to deal with time and time again, we are going on 26 years married and I tell you it has been hell for myself and our 2 sons. my husband would not give evidence as he felt that his case wasn't as bad as many others as I said mostly physical violence, but 1 particular part of it that bothers is how the male house parent take him aside and rub nappy rash cream ? onto his genitals on a regular basis as he said it was needed to treat him from wetting the bed each night that was caused by fear of being flogged daily, we did try to get something done about all of the other abuse but told there isn't proof enough, lol how do you prove this tell me please. we feel that all forms of abuse need a redress, not always in the form of monies though it would be nice, but also health, funeral, etc, my son when he left [REDACTED] as a teenager he went in there age 3 was then put into [REDACTED] home qld where they were made to toilet in front of others no privacy at all abused again locked in tiny blackened rooms with 1 brick of light etc,. I can write here for hrs but it feels like no one will do anything, I guess you are our last glimmer of light ina very sad world, my husband often says to me,{ I GUESS I WILL BE AT PEACE WHEN IM DEAD} Thanyou for reading this letter [REDACTED]